*Trinity Lutheran Church exists to support its members
in proclaiming the Word of God
so that all may know
the peace, joy, and fulfillment*

As we prepare to come back into the building for worship on August 23rd, I wanted to remind of the protocols that Church Council has put in place for the safety of everyone involved. I wanted to remind you of those protocols so that you are prepared if you choose to join us in the sanctuary for worship. Please be aware that we will only open if the Dunn County Health Department guidelines for indoor gatherings reaches 50 people. Please check the Facebook page, website, and your email for updates. If we cannot worship in the sanctuary we will worship in the parking lot.

- Masks are to be worn by all. You will be provided a mask if you do not have one.
- Maintain social distance of six feet at all times.
- Places where you can sit will be clearly marked. People living in the same household may sit together in one pew. Otherwise, two people may sit together on each end of the pew.
- Bulletins will be placed at the places where you can sit and we ask that you take them with you.
- Doors will be propped open (other than the bathroom doors) so that you will not need to touch them.
- Offering plates will be placed by the doors to the sanctuary for you to place your offering.
- There will be no passing of the peace or communal singing. Songs will be led by a song leader.
- Communion will be different or may not occur.
- Doors will open 15 minutes prior to worship.
- There will be no coffee fellowship before or after worship.
- We ask that you exit immediately following the service.
- Capacity is limited but we will do our best to make sure everyone can worship, even if we have to extend social distanced seating into the fellowship hall.
- Hand sanitizer will be available and placed in multiple locations for your use.
- All hymnals, pencils, and directories have been removed from the sanctuary so that we will not have to sanitize them after worship.
- If you are sick, have a fever, or are high-risk, we ask that you stay home.
- All services will continue to be live streamed on Facebook.

I look forward to being together again, safely, and again ask that the Lord bless us and guide us in these unprecedented times. If you have any questions, please feel free to reach out to me or any Church Council member.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Brad

WOMEN OF TRINITY

Welcome to the eighth month of the year. Weather lore says: "For every fog in August, there will be a snowfall the falling winter." Let's enjoy this month of great weather now. The average temperature is 81.4 degrees with 3" of rain. That means plenty of sunshine for us to enjoy! It's a great month for sweet corn, tomatoes and cantaloupe. It is the busiest month for tourism. Sadly, that won't be the case this year.

There are plenty of opportunities for being creative and finding new ways to smile. Have you tried a Trinity Parking Lot Worship Service? Now that's worth smiling about! Did you know that when we share PEACE, horns are honked? I thought all horns sounded the same. Wrong! The range of honking tones is like a symphony directed by PB. It feels really great to honk your horn with joy. We found that the speakers in the parking lot have plenty of volume with our windows down and we didn't even need the radio on.

Our Board does not meet in July. I do, however, have one update. At this time, school supply items will need to wait to be delivered at church for our local schools. We are trying to keep the flow in and out of the building at a minimum. Thanks for understanding. You can still make some purchases to donate later and some for yourself. Do you have enough glue sticks or tape on hand? How about a new box or two of colored pencils or crayons...there are some terrific adult coloring books out there! You may appreciate them on a rainy or snowy day in the future.

I am sharing my Granola recipe for you to prepare, as promised. We like it on Greek vanilla yogurt with fruit and our grandchildren like it on ice cream. It came from a PBS (TV) cooking show years ago. The ingredients can be found at the Grain Bin, Wheeler, Wisconsin, or any local grocery store.

Recipe For: Pecan Coconut Granola

In large bowl stir together:

3 1/2 Cup Slow Cooking Oatmeal (thick cut)
1/3 Cup Dark Brown Sugar
1 Cup Pecans (You can use walnuts)

In a small bowl blend:

1/4 Cup Vegetable Oil
3 Tbls. Honey
1 tsp. Vanilla

Pour over first mixture and mix well. Spread out on a large cookie sheet lined with parchment paper for easy cleanup. Bake at 325 degrees for ten minutes. Stir well and bake another ten minutes. Cool and gently break into pieces. Store in an air tight container. I hope you like it!

Compete for the crown

The apostle Paul compares the Christian life to running a race for an imperishable crown.

Directions: From the starting line through the finish line, circle every third letter. Then place the circled letters in order in the blanks below to complete 1 Corinthians 9:24-25, NIV.

FINISH

“Do you not know that in a _____ all the runners run, but only one gets the _____? _____ in such a way as to get the prize. Everyone who _____ in the _____ goes into strict _____ . They do it to get a crown that will not last, but we do it to get a _____ that will last forever.”

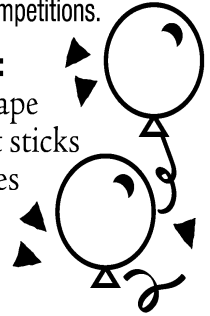

1 CORINTHIANS 9:24-25, NIV

GREAT SUMMER GAMES

Though this year’s Summer Olympics were postponed, you can host friendly neighborhood competitions.

What you need:

- Masking tape
- Large craft sticks
- Paper plates
- Balloons
- Ribbon
- Scissors
- Green construction paper
- Craft glue

What you do:

Balloon Badminton: Make rackets by taping a stick “handle” to each plate. Blow up and tie a balloon. Use the rackets to pass the balloon back and forth, without letting it touch the floor.

Rhythmic Routines: Using tape, firmly attach one end of a 4-foot ribbon to a craft stick. Display style and skill by waving it around. Try choreographing a routine to a praise song.

Champion Crown: Cut a large hole out of the center of a paper plate. Cut 2-inch ovals from green paper. Glue those “leaves” to the ring as garland. Crown a winner of each game!

Let me hear joy and gladness!
