TRINITY GOOD NEWS

October 2017

BEKWIL NO' 9 ROACEAILLE WI 54725 STANDARD PRESORTED

BOACEAITTE MI 24725 BO BOX 247 1039 NORDAEIEN DRIVE TRINITY LUTHERAN CHURCH

On October 31st, millions of children will put on their costumes, grab their buckets or bags, and head out to trick-or-treat on Halloween, collecting candy along the way. But another major event is also going to play out that day; one that we will celebrate on Sunday, October 29th: The 500th ANNIVERSARY OF THE REFORMATION!

On October 31, 1517, Augustinian monk Martin Luther posted on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany, 95 theses for debate. These 95 sentences would birth what is called the Reformation and change the world religiously, politically, economically, and more. We are still feeling the effects of the Reformation today.

We are who we are as a church because of what Martin Luther did. Our Christian denomination is named after him after all. But what is more important is the foundation of who we are. Martin Luther saw in scripture that we are saved by grace through faith and not by our works. We are saved by what Christ has done, not what we have done, and because we are saved we have been freed from sin, death, and the devil to live and serve our neighbor. We no longer worry about our own salvation but rather how to live out our faith in the world.

It is appropriate and important that we celebrate this important occasion. Just as we lifted up the 100th anniversary of our congregation or might go out with your spouse for your wedding anniversary, taking a moment to remember and give thanks is important. It reminds us of who we are, of what is at the core of our mission and ministry.

I hope you will join us as we celebrate this important occasion. And on October 31st, in the midst of handing out candy on Halloween; (and me in a Packers jersey. Thanks Trinity) take a moment to give thanks to the Lord for inspiring Martin Luther to post those 95 theses all those years ago. And maybe even sing a few bars of his most famous hymn,

"A Mighty Fortress is Our God." Thanks be to God!

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Brad

We need lots of help to move stuff in and out of rooms. We also have to remove some of the current carpet ourselves, to not only speed up carpeting, but also save a few dollars on labor. I'm scheduling time, both after Sunday worship and at night. Below is tentative schedule of when we will need help:

We would love to have six people for each time. If you are willing to serve, please let me or Brent Larson know or just show up at one of these times.

I thank you in advance for your patience during this work and for your help.

YOUTH COORDINATOR MESSAGE

Hello from your Youth Coordinator!

In the coming weeks, we will be in full swing with our youth programming at Trinity Lutheran! Sunday School has begun and The Crew will begin the end of September. New beginnings allow all of us to bring a new energy and excitement to our ministry. It has always been a dream of mine to work with the younger generation of Lutherans and walk alongside them in their faith journey. I have always held an appreciation for a child-like faith and believe it is something we can all aspire to have. To be able to ask questions on a whim, to see life experiences as something new and exciting everyday, and to enjoy the small moments in life rather than the often common daily life of solely focusing on work tasks and meetings and getting to the next activity.

One of my favorite verses comes from 1 Timothy 4:12: "Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity. In this verse we hear about simplifying faith and taking moments of inspiration from everyone we come into contact with, no matter their age or ability. I love children's sermons because you never know what you're going to get! I am often surprised by the sometimes funny and incredibly profound things that come out during that time. We can learn so much and learn to appreciate life's gifts in a new way. I hope to see you at some of our upcoming October events with the Fall Family Fest and a Middle School Lock -In toward the end of the month!

Blessings to you all and I encourage you to take some time each day to appreciate the small gifts in life with a child-like faith.

Narrative Lectionary Stories for October 2017

October 1: 1 Exodus 2:23-25; 3:1-15; 4:10-17 God's Name Revealed In the midst of the slavery of God's people, God provides someone to bring them out of slavery into freedom: Moses. In doing so, God also provides to Moses God's own name that the Israelites would trust in Moses and also promises to give Moses the words he will need to lead his people to freedom.

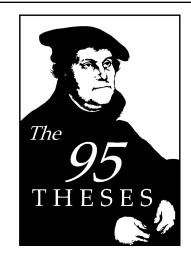

October 8: Exodus 16:1-18 God Provides Manna
Despite the complaints of those God has just freed from bondage, God does not forget the needs of the Israelites. God provides "bread from heaven" that doesn't just satisfy their hunger, but goes above and beyond their need, showing them and us that God blesses us extravagantly.

October 15: 1 Samuel 3:1-21 God Calls Samuel Samuel doesn't understand that God is calling him, but Eli does. For us, God calls every day for us to live as disciples in the world, to use our gifts for the glory of God. Our ears need to be open to hear that call to answer as Samuel was advised to, "speak, for your servant is listening."

October 22: 1 Samuel 16:1-13 (Confirmation Sunday) God Calls David We have another call story from 1 Samuel, this time the call of David to be king. David wasn't the tallest, the oldest, or the strongest amongst his brothers. But he had what God desired: a faithful heart.

October 29: Psalm 56, Jeremiah 31:31-34, Romans 3:19-28, John 8:31-38 Reformation Sunday

We gather to remember the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation and of Martin Luther's bold declaration that we are saved by grace through faith and not by works.

IMO GLADYS, EDDIE, MELVIN SLIND BUILDING CARPET, PAINT, YOUTH COORD. NORMA SLIND WILLIAMS There is not — nor can there be! — any reason for tearing oneself away from the church in schism. Rather, the worse things become, the more one should help her and stand by her, for by schism and contempt nothing can be mended.

—Martin Luther, German pastor whose "95 Theses" sparked the Protestant Reformation

They saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat John 6:19

God's grace is a free gift, not something we can earn on our own. How do we have this gift?

		1	:17, NI	/

Answer: "For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ." John 1:17, MIV

Make this sign to hang on your wall as a daily reminder of God's amazing gift of grace.

What you need:

- White poster board
- Large wooden letters that spell GRACE
- Painter's tape
- Tempura paint
- Paper plates
- Paintbrushes
- Colored pens or markers

What you do:

- 1. Place the poster board on the ground (outside, if possible).
- 2. Put tape on the back of the letters and secure them to the board. No tape should be visible.
- 3. Paint and draw all over the poster board. Be creative with splatters, handprints and so on.
- 4. When paint is dry, remove the letters and hang up the poster.
