You shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

Deuteronomy 26:11

June is a month of joy and celebration in my household. Both Amy and I have our birthdays in June and we got married in June as well so we celebrate our anniversary too. School ends, the weather is warm, and there is lots of time spent on the porch, the golf course, grilling out, and enjoying sunshine. We often take our vacations in June to the happiest places (I think you can guess where we go). I often also go to camp with our youth in June which is one of my favorite things and we usually have 'Vacation Bible School' in June which is a joyful time for kids and adults alike.

This year will be little different in our house though. We will both be gone our respective birthdays and not together, as Amy will be on trip with a college friend and I'll be in Houston at the 'National Youth Gathering'. I'll also be in Houston for our anniversary, the first time we will ever be apart. All of our vacation is happening in July this year. It will be different, but it will still be joyful.

We often see the difficulties of our lives and though we may celebrate and be joyful from time to time, it can feel short-lived or only happen on a special occasion like a birthday or the last day of school. But with Jesus as our Savior, we have reason to rejoice every day. There is always something that brings us joy. Maybe it is that cup of coffee we have in the morning or the snuggle of a pet when we come home from work. Maybe it is something funny that happens at work or the smile of a child. Maybe it is a beautiful warm day or a conversation with a friend. Maybe it is our favorite song on the radio or the satisfaction of having a project completed. It can be hundreds of things, every day things, that remind us that life is a blessing and gift.

For we all have reasons to celebrate, not just in June or July but every single day. After all, every day through the waters of baptism we rise anew, free from sin through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Every day we receive the Holy Spirit that reminds us of the promise of everlasting life and renews us in faith and hope. Every day God blesses us in ways both big and small, even in the midst of change, suffering, or doubt.

Remember every day to give thanks for the joys both big and small that we receive from our Savior. For that we can say, "Thanks be to God!"

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Brad

Happy Father's Day

I believe that what we become depends on what our fathers teach us at odd moments,
when they aren't trying to teach us.
We are formed by little scraps of wisdom.
-unknown-

Thanks!

Dear Trinity Lutheran Church,

Thank you so very much for the generous donation towards West CAP's Food Pantry to purchase personal care items. Recently we were able to acquire diapers and diaper wipes because of your faithful giving. West CAP appreciates the support and volunteer service that so many of Trinity's parishioners provide to the Food Access and Resource programs here in Boyceville.

These programs would not be available to households in need if it wasn't for the faithful support we receive from people, organizations and churches like you! I also would like to thank the Sunday School for the generous donation they made to the Weekend Meals Program in Boyceville! What a true blessing Trinity Lutheran Church has been to West CAP!

May you all have a wonderful spring!

Warm regards,

Melissa J Larson, C.S.W

Summer is the perfect time to gaze at the wonders in the sky. Make this craft as a reminder of God's handiwork — including you!

What you need:

- Glass jar
- Permanent marker
- Glue (and water)
- Paper plate

What you do:

1. Around the jar's opening, write in permanent marker: Shine ... like stars in the sky. Philippians 2:15
2. Pour some glue on the plate. Thin with some water.
3. "Paint" the outside of the jar with glue and then sprinkle on some sequins. Let dry.
