*Satisfy us in the morning with your steadfast love, so that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
Let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us, and prosper for us the work of our hands—O prosper the work of our hands!*

Psalm 90:14, 17

My favorite time of day might be the morning. Breakfast is my favorite meal of the day (BACON-duh). I love to play early morning golf, and there is the joy of the morning walk with Amy and the dog. I also do my best work in the morning. Morning hours are the times when I write sermons and Trinity Tidings, when I work on Bible Studies, and I am just the most productive. Morning is also the time when I spend time in devotion and prayer. It is a great way to start the day.

Morning is a great time to remember that we are children of God saved by the work of Jesus Christ. When we wake up, the day is before us and there are a plethora of possibilities for how the day might go. It is important to remember before we start the journey of our day that we have been showered with the love of God through Jesus Christ. Whether the day might hold just lounging around all day or is filled with things that will be difficult, we always need that daily reminder that we are first and foremost loved children of God. It is an reassurance of who we are and who we belong to so that we might rejoice and be glad.

But we also need to remember that every day we have a purpose to be the hands and feet of God in the world. We should remember to ask God to prosper the work of our hands, as it says in Psalm 90. For we have been given a calling to bring the love of God in Jesus Christ wherever we go. We want God to prosper the work of our hands; from making meals for our kids, to our time at work, to our time out in the community. We don't stop being a child of God when we leave the house. Rather, we live most fully our faith through our words and deeds out in the world and through us we can make a positive difference in the lives of others.

Mornings are my favorite part of the day because it is a time to remember the love we have been given in Jesus and the start of an opportunity to spread that love to others. May the Lord prosper the work of our hands in all things and remind us every day of our calling as a child of God.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Brad

The Squirrel

Whisky Frisky

Up He Goes To The Tree Top!
Whirly Twirly
Round and Round
Down He Scampers
To The Ground.
Furly Curly
What A Tail
Tall As A Feather
Broad As A Snail
Where's His Supper?
In The Shell
Snappy Cracky
Out It Fell!

Squirrels

I think I'd be hard pressed to unfurl
A poem as exquisite as a squirrel.
A squirrel whose little paws are prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast.
A squirrel that plays with God all day
And buries nuts for a rainy day.
A squirrel that may in Springtime wear
A crown of blossoms in her hair.
Upon whose tail fresh snow has lain
And frolics sweetly in the rain.
Poems are made by silly girls
But only God has mastered squirrels!

These all look to you to give them their food in due season
Psalm 104:27

He gives to the animals their food

AUTUMN

As summer draws its final breath
 To prepare its curtain call
 The monarchs begin their epic trek
 To usher in the fall

The northern wind breathes out its chill
 As songs begin to hush
 And paints the trees upon the hill
 With its artist's brush

From green to red, orange, and brown
 The trees discards their masks
 And lay them gently upon the ground
 For us to begin our tasks

Autumn makes way for winter's reign
 We bid farewell old friend
 Till summer's warmth begins to wane
 And fall returns again
