“A gift opens doors . . .” Proverbs 19:6a

I found this verse from Proverbs as I searched for inspiration for this month's Good News and it really intrigued me. I started to think of reasons why we might give someone a gift. To celebrate a special occasion like a birthday, anniversary, graduation, and the like. We might give a gift out of thankfulness for what someone has done for us. There has been many a husband who has given a gift asking for forgiveness for something they did wrong, so we give gifts to show people we care and our sorry. And, of course, we give gifts on special occasions, like Christmas.

But no matter why we give gifts, a gift can open a door. For when we give a gift we show our appreciation for the relationship we are in with another person. Giving a gift shows that they matter, that they are important, that they have a special place in our lives. This symbol of caring, of relationship, opens up doors to establish a deeper and more meaningful relationship or a chance to begin a new relationship or strengthen an old one.

The gift of Jesus Christ, born in a manger in Bethlehem, opens a door of relationship with us and our God. For this gift of the babe born in Bethlehem shows us that God cares about us, that God wants to save us through this Savior born in Bethlehem. After all, this Jesus is Emmanuel, “God with us,” to show us that God is with us always and that we are loved, cared for, and saved.

The gift of Jesus to us establishes a relationship of grace and mercy between us and God. It opens a door so that we can connect with God, to see God not as a God of wrath or judgement but as a God of grace, love, mercy, and steadfast love. After all, as it says in Romans 6:23, “For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

This Christmas season, I hope that the gifts you give others open doors so that you can show others that they are loved, important, and matter. And remember that the gift of Jesus Christ given to you opens a door so that you can see the grace and mercy of God and know that you are loved, important, matter, and our saved. Merry Christmas and God bless!

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Brad

Greetings from your Pastoral Intern!

December is one of my favorite months! Christmas is my favorite time of year, as well as the fact that we have so many awesome things happening here at Trinity in the month of December. We have the Spirit of Christmas Silent Auction benefitting our youth going to the 2022 ELCA National Youth Gathering. We have the Sunday School Christmas program, and of course, our Christmas Eve services.

Apart from these fun events, one thing I love about the month of December is the joy and kindness that seems to emanate from so many people, a time when spirits are lifted, and people seem to have more patience and kindness for one another. I see the joy in giving to others, in donating gifts for children and families in need, in the work that the local food pantries do for families to provide a hearty and warm meal for their families to celebrate this holiday. It is in this sheer joy, this understanding of loving another, that the Spirit of Christmas and the joy of Jesus Christ comes to us.

“It is Christmas every time you let God love others through you...yes, it is Christmas every time you smile at your brother and offer him your hand.” – Mother Teresa

This quote from Mother Teresa invites us to consider how we can take the joy we often feel this month and enact it all year long. The love of God that is given to us along with the gift of faith, invites us to go out into the world sharing the joy and love of a Savior who comes to us in the humblest of forms – a baby who will change the world forever and remind us of the promises of God for us and for our neighbor.

My prayer for you all this month is to find moments of joy that you can share with others. My prayer for you all is to find patience in the busyness of this season – patience for ourselves, patience for our children or grandchildren, patience for strangers we encounter, patience in our hearts. The love of Christ that is born to us in this Christmas season, empowers us to share that love all year round. May we go and do just that!

May you all have a wonderful Christmas season!

Pastoral Intern Katie Wagner

WOMEN OF TRINITY

The Women of Trinity usually buy the flowers for the Confirmands for Confirmation Sunday. This year Mary Vullings purchased and made the flowers for them. Mary even came in and pinned the flowers on for the kids. Great job Mary!! Thank you so much!

All the women of Trinity are invited to join us for the Winter Gathering on Saturday, December 4th at 9:00. We will be serving breakfast and we're planning some Christmas Trivia and Bingo. After that we will have our last group meeting of the year. Come and enjoy fellowship, fun and good food. Please sign up so that we can plan for food. There's a sign up sheet on the table in the Narthex.

I hope you are all excited about making lefse this year! The time is almost here. Deb Holmlund and Peggy Danovsky have been making plans and will have all the information out for you, such as dates and times. It will be great to have the kitchen filled with laughter again this year.

Dar Booth and I are also excited about the bake sale. You will be receiving your postcard in the mail. If any of you would like to help work at the bake sale let us know. We would love to have the help. Dar- 715-456-8924 or Sandy- 715-308-4684. I'm pretty sure that the community will be looking forward to the bake sale after not being able to have it last year. We love seeing all the familiar faces that come year after year. So many of them comment on the delicious baked items that our congregation brings in for sale. We do have a lot of wonderful bakers!!

The Youth are having the Silent Auction and Soup Meal so stop in to support them as well!!

I guess I won't be writing again before Christmas so I'll end with this:
I wish you all a Very Merry Christmas and May God Bless you!

Sandra Wheeler

Thank You, Thank you, Thank you!!!

The Ladies from Trinity would like to thank all who helped out in any way with the Fall Oktoberfest Craft/Vendor Show". We had a great day!! The weather was perfect for a fall road trip which brought out lots of people who bought lots of merchandise AND food, WHICH left all of us with many positive comments and of course good results moneywise. THANK YOU for coming and supporting our event!!! We appreciate YOU and so do our vendors/crafters!!! After taking out for expenses we profited over $3,000.00 from the Craft/Vendor space rental, the raffles, the quilt raffle and the concessions.

A very special thank you to the following people for helping us make this such a successful fund raiser:

- Sandy Wheeler & Becky Nyhus for organizing the menu and overseeing the kitchen and the Ladies of Trinity for making and serving food. The menu was a hit!!!
- All who donated food items.
- The Quilting Group for donating the two beautiful quilts (many wonderful comments on the beautiful quilts).
- Randy Schutz for helping set up and tearing down. Your wife loves you!!!!
- Donna Hedlund for helping with tickets sales.
- Carrie Bartos for taking care of the raffle tables and calling all the lucky winners.
- Boyceville School District for allowing us to use their facility for our event.
- And a very special thanks to our families, for helping us in our times of need!

Without you we would not be able to put on such a successful sale. It takes time and many hands, so thank you so very very much for your time and talent !!!!

Just a reminder, we are ALWAYS looking for volunteers to help with this event, so if this is something you think you would love to be part of, helping a little or a lot, we would love to hear from you!!! Just give us a call, Kathy Hanson @ 715-308-6093 or Peggy Schutz @ 715-556-2247.

BAPTISMS

It is with heartfelt thanks to the members of Trinity who helped us celebrate our 65th wedding anniversary. A special thanks to Pastor Brad, Katie and the Trinity Men's Band. You all helped to make our day a special memorable day.

Howard and Marlene Edlin

I would like to wholeheartedly thank the ladies who make quilts and donate to the food pantry in Boyceville. We give the quilts to each new family and lately we have seen a very large Hispanic population move to the Boyceville area and we have been able to supply these families with blankets of which they are very thankful for.

Thank you all for your endless hours of work and donations of materials to make quilts for those in need. If we could bottle up the smiles and send them your way we would! They make everyone's first visit here to the food pantry a pleasant experience. Many of the new families speak little or no English and their smiles when presented with a new blanket warms all of our hearts!

Thanks again for all you do!

Sincerely, Melissa J Larson

SIMPLE SYMBOLS

Create personalized initial ornaments for family and friends.

What you need:

- Small twigs (various shapes and sizes)
- Hot glue
- Yarn
- Scissors
- Adult help

What you do:

1. After gathering twigs, arrange them to create uppercase letter shapes. Cross, bend and break twigs, as needed.
2. Glue "letters" together at the intersections.
3. Cut an arm-length of yarn and wind it around twigs to add color to each letter.
4. Create a loop of yarn and tie it to the top of the ornament for hanging.

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth; break forth into joyous song and sing praises.

Psalm 98:4
