At Walt Disney World there is a ride called the “Carousel of Progress,” which first debuted at the 1964 World’s Fair. It is a rotating theater that rotates from one scene to other to showcase the progress humanity has made from the turn of the 20th century till modern times-ish. One of the big features of the attraction (which is really fun but also, being pretty long, a great place for a nap!) is the song, “A Great Big Beautiful Tomorrow.” The first line of the song is, “It’s a great big beautiful tomorrow. Shining at the end of every day.” The song conveys hope, of dreaming of the future and what the future will bring as humanity continues on the path of progress.

But there are times when tomorrow doesn’t seem very hopeful, where singing the line “tomorrow’s just a dream away” feels like a nightmare. We are currently into our third year dealing with COVID-19 and it seems like a nightmare that just won’t end. We worry about what tomorrow will bring, whether it be sickness or a new variant or just more frustration dealing with all that has come with the pandemic. It doesn’t help right now that we are in the grips of winter where the cold and gloom weigh heavily upon us. I know that there have been times when I have dreaded tomorrow, wondering what new awful thing might be coming around the corner.

But that is not how we live as followers of Jesus Christ. We can look to tomorrow with hope because Jesus is with us. We know that in Christ we have eternal life, that the Lord carries our burdens, and is there for us always. Life can be hard, cruel, and painful, especially when we grieve and suffer. But life is never without hope because we are never without Jesus. Ever. It is a great big beautiful tomorrow and it is shining because the light of the world shines upon us. Jesus Christ shines upon you. And it gives you hope, for it is a “great, big, beautiful tomorrow.” Thanks be to God!

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Brad

Greetings from your Pastoral Intern!

There are many things I love about winter: the slowly falling snow and being wrapped up in a blanket with a good book, seeing my godsons play in the snow and having a ball with their sleds and building snowmen, and the delicate outlining of the snow in trees creating a beautiful drive or walk. But, there are things that I don't love about winter: the icy sidewalks that force me to shuffle along, the potentially treacherous weather, or seeing people I love and people I know struggling with grief and depression this time of year because of the isolation that comes with winter.

This time of year can be debilitating for so many people. People who are suffering from Seasonal Affective Disorder (SAD or the Winter Blues), people who are starting the new year without a loved one, there could be so many reasons for this post-holiday grief and sadness. I myself have had times when this time of year has put me into a funk, caused me to lose motivation because all I'd rather do is stay in bed.

In those moments, if you are feeling this way, the first thing I want you to know is this: YOU ARE NOT ALONE AND YOU MATTER. The second thing is that IT IS OKAY to feel this way and to struggle. Goodness, we are only human and will face numerous challenges and setbacks in our lives. But you are not alone. God walks with you in even the darkest or bleakest of moments, sending people in our lives to remind us that we are loved, and we matter. God provides us with opportunities to find joy, to experience laughter, to feel the love of a friend or family member who just calls to check in.

You see, in those moments where you might feel broken or alone, God is there. God can handle your frustration, your anger, your grief, your feelings of brokenness or loneliness. God, in those times, seeks to be close to you, wrapping you in love and grace and reminding you of the promises of God fulfilled in Jesus Christ. This is given to you through the gift of faith to free you from those things that bind you, those things that bring you down, and conquers them all. Through Jesus Christ, all is made new, each day can be a new start, each day can bring moments filled with love and belonging. Each day remember that you are a beloved child of God.

Have a blessed February!

Blessings and peace to you all,

Pastoral Intern Katie Wagner

WOMEN OF TRINITY

This year began with two very lovely women of Trinity being called home to be with our Lord. My Mom, Betty Steies passed away on Jan 3rd and on Jan 13th Dee Brezina also went to be with her Lord. We will miss these ladies so much. As I write this we haven't had the service for Dee yet but I have no doubt that it will be a beautiful service. I want to thank everyone that served at mom's funeral and everyone that brought food and worked for Dee's. I know my family and I'm sure Dee's family as well appreciate everything you do to help them get through this difficult day. Please remember both families in your prayers.

April will bring the Saver Fun Drive. This is the event where you get to clean your closets and homes and bring your items to the church to donate. Last year was the first time we tried this and it went really well. We will collect items every Saturday in April and then the items collected will be delivered to Savers most likely the first week in May. Please bring your clothing items in garbage bags and shoes and household items in boxes. Savers people were terrific to work with and this is an event we would like to continue doing.

It seems like there isn't much going on right now for the WOT but that's ok because we can use this time to recharge for upcoming events. We can all use a little recharge once in a while!!

February, the month of LOVE!!
Give your loved ones and extra long hug!!

Sandy Wheeler

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.

John 15:12

Dear Ladies,

I would like to give a great big heartfelt thank you for your most recent generous monetary donation to West CAP's Food Pantry! Your support and help throughout the year has been instrumental in the way we are able to serve families in need that live here locally. We value the time and energy many of your parishioners give as a volunteer to the many programs that we administer here in Boyceville. May you all have a blessed and healthy new year and thanks again for your amazing support!

Sincerely, Melissa Larson

Subject: Volunteers needed

West CAP is in need of volunteers on Thursday's for outdoor food pantry distribution. Due to the rising cases of covid West CAP's food pantry will continue to operate under covid guidelines which includes outdoor distribution with curb side assistance through the spring of 2022. We are in need of volunteers willing to be "cart runners". We are open 1pm-7pm and like to schedule people for two hour shifts. This job includes filling carts and taking them to the vehicles to unload food into customers' cars. We also are in need of folks that have experience unloading semis with a power hand fork lift if interested please call Melissa J. Larson at 715-977-1191 to fill out a volunteer application. Thank you!
