Psalm 118:24

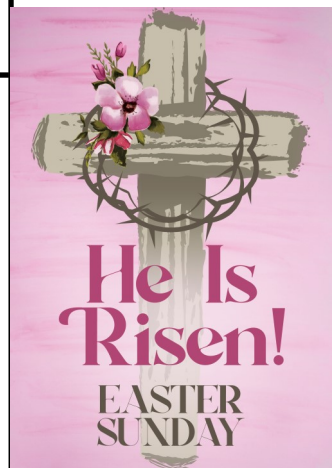

This is the day that the LORD has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

As I write this, I'm incredibly tired. I'm sore. Even got a little bit of a headache. But in this state, I came across this verse. And to be honest, when I first read it, I didn't really feel like rejoicing. Rejoice over being tired, sore, with a headache and maybe even a bit cranky? But then I took a moment and thought about it. Sure, I have all those things that are going on. But I'm also alive. I'm loved by family and friends. And even more importantly, I'm loved by my Savior who has defeated sin and death for me and has prepared a place for me in heaven. So it is time to rejoice!

Here in April we will celebrate Christ's death and resurrection, where Jesus died on the cross for our sins, defeated sin and death, and rose from the grave to bring us to eternal life. Because of that, we live with a promise, a promise that death has no power, sin has now power, the devil has no power, and no matter what, we have a place in God's glory by the grace and mercy of Jesus Christ. It is this promise that makes us rejoice. It is this promise that makes us shout "Alleluia!" It is this promise that keeps us going in life.

We need that promise because it is easy to wake up every day and feel the aches and pains of life. To look upon the news of the day with despair. To not rejoice in the day that the Lord has made. But the promise of everlasting life, the promise that death and sin have no more power over us, gives us hope. Hope in knowing that we are not alone in our sufferings. Hope in knowing that the Lord gives us strength, even when we feel weak. Hope that lies on Jesus Christ, our Messiah, our shepherd, our Savior, who carries our burdens, forgives our sins, and brings us to eternal life.

This is the day the Lord has made! Let us rejoice and be glad in it, for it is a gift and we live as people of hope and promise. For that we can say, "Thanks be to God!" Amen

Greetings from your Pastoral Intern!

A Blessing for the Easter Season

by Meta Herrick Carlson

Fifty days for impossible, unlikely encounters, signs of new life, creative resilience, and speechless joy.

Fifty days for scars shown, real human bodies alive, telling stories about what has hurt and been made whole.

Fifty days for Spirit breathed, forgiveness unleashed, presence that's pure, courage that finds us together for good.

*Fifty days for jubilee,
debts fully repaid,
broken life restored,
people rejoicing and raised from the dead!*

This month, the final days of Lent are upon us, and leads us toward the cross and the resurrection that follows. A month that starts in darkness, in despair, in the reality of understanding what we have done to this man, Jesus, turns to light, to celebration, to joy in a few short weeks.

This Easter season, remember that you are loved so much by a God who sent His only Son to die for you, for your sins, for all the things that seek to tear you apart from God and one another. Remember that God makes all things new, and in the promise of the resurrection, we are given new life through Jesus Christ, to give us hope for a future without pain, without suffering, with eternal joy and belonging.

We invite you to join us this Easter season and celebrate God's promises for you.

Jesus is risen. He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Share the good news!

Blessings to you!

Pastoral Intern Katie Wagner

WOMEN OF TRINITY

We are so fortunate that over the years we have had some pretty good handymen that have shared their talents to keep our church in good condition. I'm sure that each of you may remember different men for the special gifts they shared. I want to send out a special Thanks to one of my very favorite handymen that is always there to help when we ask him to take on projects.....Mr. Ted Litzkow. The women decided to have new faucets installed in the kitchen and the cost was very high to have it done professionally so Ted being Ted said, "I can do that." He went to Menards, picked up the faucets and then installed them. They look great....thank you so much!!!

The women are serving two meals for Lent. I hope that you had a chance to come out and enjoy all the meals this Lent season. It's a great time of fellowship and a great way to help support each group as we serve. Thank you!

I hope that you are all having fun going through your things to bring to our Saver's Drive. We will be collecting each Saturday in April from 9- noon. Bring your clothing and shoes in tall kitchen size garbage bags and household items in boxes. Thanks for helping to make this a successful event for us.

I'm putting out a call for help. We have a Prayer Chain at Trinity and we can really use some more people to join. If someone has an illness or situation that needs prayer, they let someone in our group know and we start the chain of prayer. All you have to do is make one phone call and share the information given to you and then say your prayer for the person in need. We all know the power of prayer works. It helps so much for them to know that more people are praying for them. Please consider helping. It's a special way to share your talents for the good of the people that need our prayers. If you will help please let me know, Sandy Wheeler 715-308-4684.

Take Care and May God Bless You!
Happy Easter
