Isaiah 43:19: "I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert."

On August 7th, we will gather as a congregation to say thanks and goodbye to Katie, not only as our Pastoral Intern, but also for the four years she served as our Youth Coordinator. It will be a bittersweet day as we honor the amazing work in ministry she did at Trinity while asking for God to bless her as she begins her time as a CPE Resident at University of Minnesota Fairview. Things are about to change, not only for Katie, but for us as well.

We have been blessed to have Katie with us and all that she did for our youth and every part of our ministry. It is a new time for Trinity and we will need to adjust, to not only get used to not having Katie with us, but also for what it means for the ministry that will continue in her absence. We trust that the Lord who, in the scripture above, talks about making a way in the wilderness, rivers in the desert, a Lord who does new things. And one of the new things that the Lord does is call new leaders to guide God's ministry. And with Katie leaving us, we need new leaders, to help keep the ministry that she grew to continue.

Are you that leader? Are you that person who is willing to help Crew continue to be successful, to be a place where young people can come and get a positive experience and feel God's love in Jesus Christ? Are you that leader who is willing to join our youth on a mission trip or help plan an event? Are you willing to see the new thing God is doing in your life, calling you to use your gifts in a new way?

My hope is that you will take some time in prayer for the following. I hope you will give prayers of thanks for Katie's ministry at Trinity and pray for her success as she starts at UofM Fairview. I hope that you will pray for Trinity and its ministry as we grieve her absence and continue on without her in our ministry and mission. And I hope you will pray to perceive the call of your Savior to serve in a new way, to be one who is willing to use their gifts for the sake of God's mission in the world, whether it be helping with Crew, assisting in our youth ministry, or using your gifts in any of Trinity's ministries.

God in Jesus Christ is about to do a new thing. Are you ready to answer the call? If so, contact me and we will put you in place to use the gifts you have been given for God's glory in the world and to make a positive faith impact in the lives of others.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Brad

Greetings from your Pastoral Intern!

Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us. Love, forgiveness, and hope are within us, in the name of God who sent Jesus and the Holy Spirit, to show us that we matter, and we are loved. Amen.

It felt fitting to open my final newsletter article with the words I use at the beginning of each sermon. As I'm sitting down to write this final newsletter article for your all, I'm overcome with so many emotions. On the one hand, I'm excited for the next chapter in my ministry journey and seeing where God will continue to lead me to use my gifts and passions to serve others and proclaim the Gospel. On the other hand, this newsletter marks the ending of 5 years of ministry with you all at Trinity, the last year serving as your Pastoral Intern, and serving as your Youth Coordinator before that.

When I look back on these five years, I feel immense gratitude for you all, for Pastor Brad, for this community of faith that has welcomed me into its family as we learn, live, and grow together in faith and in life. Words cannot express how each one of you has touched my life and made me into the pastor I am today. I am thankful for your support and encouragement and your kind words after my sermons. I am thankful for the many laughs we have shared, the conversations we've had where you've shared what's going on in your lives, and the encouraging smiles and hugs.

But, this will also be a difficult time as we part ways and adjust to a new daily routine in ministry. (I know you all will miss my true crime stories and shirts!) I know that I will need to grieve the transition as I leave you all. Though my time with you as your Pastoral Intern will come to an end, know that I will continue to pray for you all and this thriving and impactful ministry at Trinity.

There is something quite special about Trinity and I know you all feel it too. I am constantly blown away by how this church community embraces the community it is part of – welcoming so many kids who are not members to Crew, serving at West Cap and other local organizations to help those in need, greeting new faces on Sunday mornings, and having fun while doing it! Keep sharing light and love in the world!

I could write a dozen more pages, but I will leave you with this: I will miss you all dearly. May God bless each and every one of you in your ministry.

"Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways.

The Lord be with all of you."

2 Thessalonians 3:16

In Christ,

Pastoral Intern Katie Wagner

Christ is like a river that is continually flowing. There are always fresh supplies of water coming from the fountainhead, so that a man may live by it and be supplied with water all his life. So Christ is an ever-flowing fountain; he is continually supplying his people, and the fountain is not spent. They who live upon Christ may have fresh supplies from him for all eternity; they may have an increase of blessedness that is new [and] never will come to an end.

—Jonathan Edwards

WOMEN OF TRINITY

What a great surprise for Pastor Brad!! There was such a nice crowd and it was so great to have some special guests in attendance. The food was delicious and the decorations were awesome. Thanks to the mastermind, Katie for keeping things organized and to everyone that helped in anyway. A special thanks to all of you that showed up to celebrate our PB!!

On June 29th we had a small but eager group come to clean the kitchen. These ladies worked very hard to get it done and it looks amazing. If you see them let them know that you notice how great it looks and how much we appreciate them. A huge thank you to Peggy Schutz, Julie Fisher, Gail Stark and Mary Vullings.

Don't forget August 7th right after church in the fellowship hall. We will be having our farewell fellowship honor Katie for the wonderful work she has done here at Trinity and to wish her well as she moves on to her new job. We hope to see you there!

I must say I don't know how time flies by so fast. It just doesn't seem possible that I'm writing that we will be collecting school supplies already. August is the month that we collect items for our local schools and Lutheran World Relief kits. We will have bags hanging on the pews again and there will be sheets with the list of items needed inside the bags and on the altar in the Narthex to make it easier for you while shopping.

School Kit : Four - 70 sheet, wide or college ruled notebooks; no loose leaf
 One - blunt scissors, "safety" scissors with embedded steel blades work well
 One - 30-centimeter ruler, or a ruler with centimeters on one side and inches on the other
 One - pencil sharpener
 Five - unsharpened #2 pencils with erasers
 One - 2 ½" eraser
 Five - black or blue ballpoint pens; no gel ink
 One - box of 16 or 24 crayons

It's almost time again for our annual Pickle Fest Lunch and Pie Social. Katie and Heather are already hard at work planning. They have a couple of sign up sheets on the table for you to check out. They are looking for workers and grocery items needed.

The Women's fall gathering will be on Sept 1st at 6:00 and it is a pot luck meal. We hope that you will be able to join us.

Upcoming events:

Lunch & Pie Social – August 21st

Women's Fall Gathering – Sept 1st

Fall Craft Sale – Oct 8th

May God Bless You All

Funerals

I would like to thank everyone for the amazing and wonderful surprise party you had for me on July 17th in honor of the 20th anniversary of my ordination and of being your pastor here at Trinity. It was an amazing and moving day, and I was so grateful for all the kind words that were said as well as the gifts that were given. Special thanks to Sandy, Becky, Katie, Lenny, Christina, Trisha, Amy, Tony, for all their hard work and to everyone who helped in anyway. It has always been and continues to be a pleasure and an honor to be your pastor.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Brad
