I wonder what causes you more anxiety: to not be able to find your keys or your cell phone. On one hand, when I can't find my keys, I get a little anxious but I also know I have a back-up set of keys that I can use if I need them. If I can't find my phone, then it is like my life is over. How will I email? Stay up to date on Twitter? Play Disney Emoji Blitz? I mean, it is like my life would crumble into a thousand pieces if I don't find that phone. I have even less anxiety not being able to find my wallet then not being able to find my cell phone. Are you the same way?

I wonder if that is how the Lord feels about us when we become lost. When we drift away from the path the Lord wants us to be on. When we ignore God's Word and presence in our lives. I would like to think so. I think God gets pretty anxious and wants to bring us back. After all, as it says in Luke 19:10, "For the Son of Man came to seek out and to save the lost." Jesus says this statement to the people who are upset that he is a guest of Zacchaeus, a hated tax collector (you remember the Sunday School about the wee little man? That is him). The mission of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is to save the lost. To save you.

And let's not mince words: we are the lost. We so often look at the rest of the world and pass judgement on them like those who grumble about Zacchaeus. But we are the lost. For we all sin and fall short of the glory of God. We so often make wrong choices, act selfishly, hurt our neighbor, and put the material things of this world before our God and before helping the other. We are the lost.

But the Lord seeks us out to save us. The Lord does not give up on us. Jesus does not give up on you. That is why Christ goes to the cross. To bring you back. To save you. Jesus upends everything so that you would be found. So that you might come back to the fold and follow the path of faith. Jesus will keep searching for you. Always.

If we go crazy over something we have lost, just think about how much God is trying to find you. God gives everything for you to be found, gives his only Son, in order to save you and bring you hope. Yes, we are often the lost. We go astray. But by the grace of God in Jesus Christ, we are also the found. For we are saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, who never gives up on us. For that we can say, "Thanks be to God!"

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Brad

Quilter's Corner

Well. I bet you are all wondering how our potluck went. There was enough food to feed an army, and everything was so delicious! We have decided that it was way too much food, (I guess as a Lutheran there is no such thing,) so we are going to divide the group in half to make the food and try that. You've guessed it, we liked it so much we are going to do it once a month!! For the month of August, it has been crazy busy, well crazier than normal, if that's possible. With this group of ladies anything is possible, especially when you have 3 Shirley's!! We had some nice donations of fabric and a serger this month. Sandy showed Mary and me how the serger works, well let's say you give a kid a new toy. I'm going to have to learn how to share with Mary and I'm not good at sharing. Not going to be pretty!! Stayed tuned to see how that goes. We decided that at the end of August we would end making the mission quilts and start on the quilts for Dunn County and WestCap. We did a total of 15 mission quilts for this month and completed 1 confirmation quilt. That makes a total of 58 mission quilts. Great job ladies!! On the 23rd our quilting room was blessed with many hands, so Sandy and I went out to the dining area and cut our wonderful donations down to size. The other ladies stayed very busy putting the quilts together and finishing the quilts. Maryls is always busy sewing on the tags on each quilt for confirmation and baptism. It was a very busy day. We also celebrated Eloise's birthday. When you have a celebration there is always more food. We quilters have had our eye on PB's office to expand, but not sure where to put PB!! We keep telling him that one morning he will come to his office and find it a part of the quilting room. Any ideas are greatly appreciated. Maybe we should set up a "GO FUND QUILTERS PAGE." That about wraps it up for August. Thanks for reading and see you next month.

WOMEN OF TRINITY

I would like to thank the ladies that came out to our Fall gathering on September 1st. We enjoyed some good food for our potluck supper and some great conversation. We voted the new board for the next term beginning January 1, 2023. I'm happy to say we have a new person to announce, Kris Carlsud accepted the position of Vice President. Kathy Hanson will step up as President. The rest of the positions will be the ones currently holding the positions. Julie Fisher, Treasurer and Peggy Schutz, Secretary. Norma Stark and Gail Stark will be finishing their terms as Discipleship and Stewardship. I'm sure that we will have wonderful leadership and lots of exciting things to look forward to. Thank you ladies for continuing to serve as leaders for the Women of Trinity.

Deb Holmlund sorted the items collected for the local schools and she delivered them to the Boyceville schools. She was really enjoying ruffling through things and I'm pretty sure that she didn't mind making a visit to the school! Thanks to Becky Nyhus for saving me the trip and delivering to the Glenwood school. The schools always appreciate the things that are given to them. Thank you to everyone that brought in school supplies, we couldn't do this without you. It's amazing to see the generosity of this congregation.

ATTENTION: It's time to pack all of the items collected for the Lutheran World Relief Kits. We will be doing that on Wednesday, September 28th at 9 am. We'd love to have you join us. It's not hard to do and we can always use an extra helping hand. After the boxes are all packed they will be delivered to Eau Claire on Oct 15th. Case Carlsrud and Craig Formoe have volunteered to make the delivery for us. Thanks so much guys!!

Remember that we will collect items all year round for the Lutheran World Relief kits. You can put your items in the tote for missions under the altar in the Narthex.

I hope you are getting excited for the October Craft Sale. It's on Saturday, October 8th from 9 – 2 at Tiffany Creek Elementary School. The women will be serving lunch and snacks from 9 – 1. We hope to see you there!! You can sign up for food item donations or to work, the sheet is on the sign up table.

The weather will be getting colder so the Mitten Tree will be set up so we can help keep hands warm this winter. Other items accepted are scarves, hats, snowpants and boots. These items should be new or gently used. They are distributed to those in need through the coat closet and the school.

CHECK IT OUT!!! Deb has put out some new boxes of cards and napkins for sale on our card shelves. She has a real nice variety and they are very reasonably priced. No need to run to the store.

FUNERALS

Thank You!

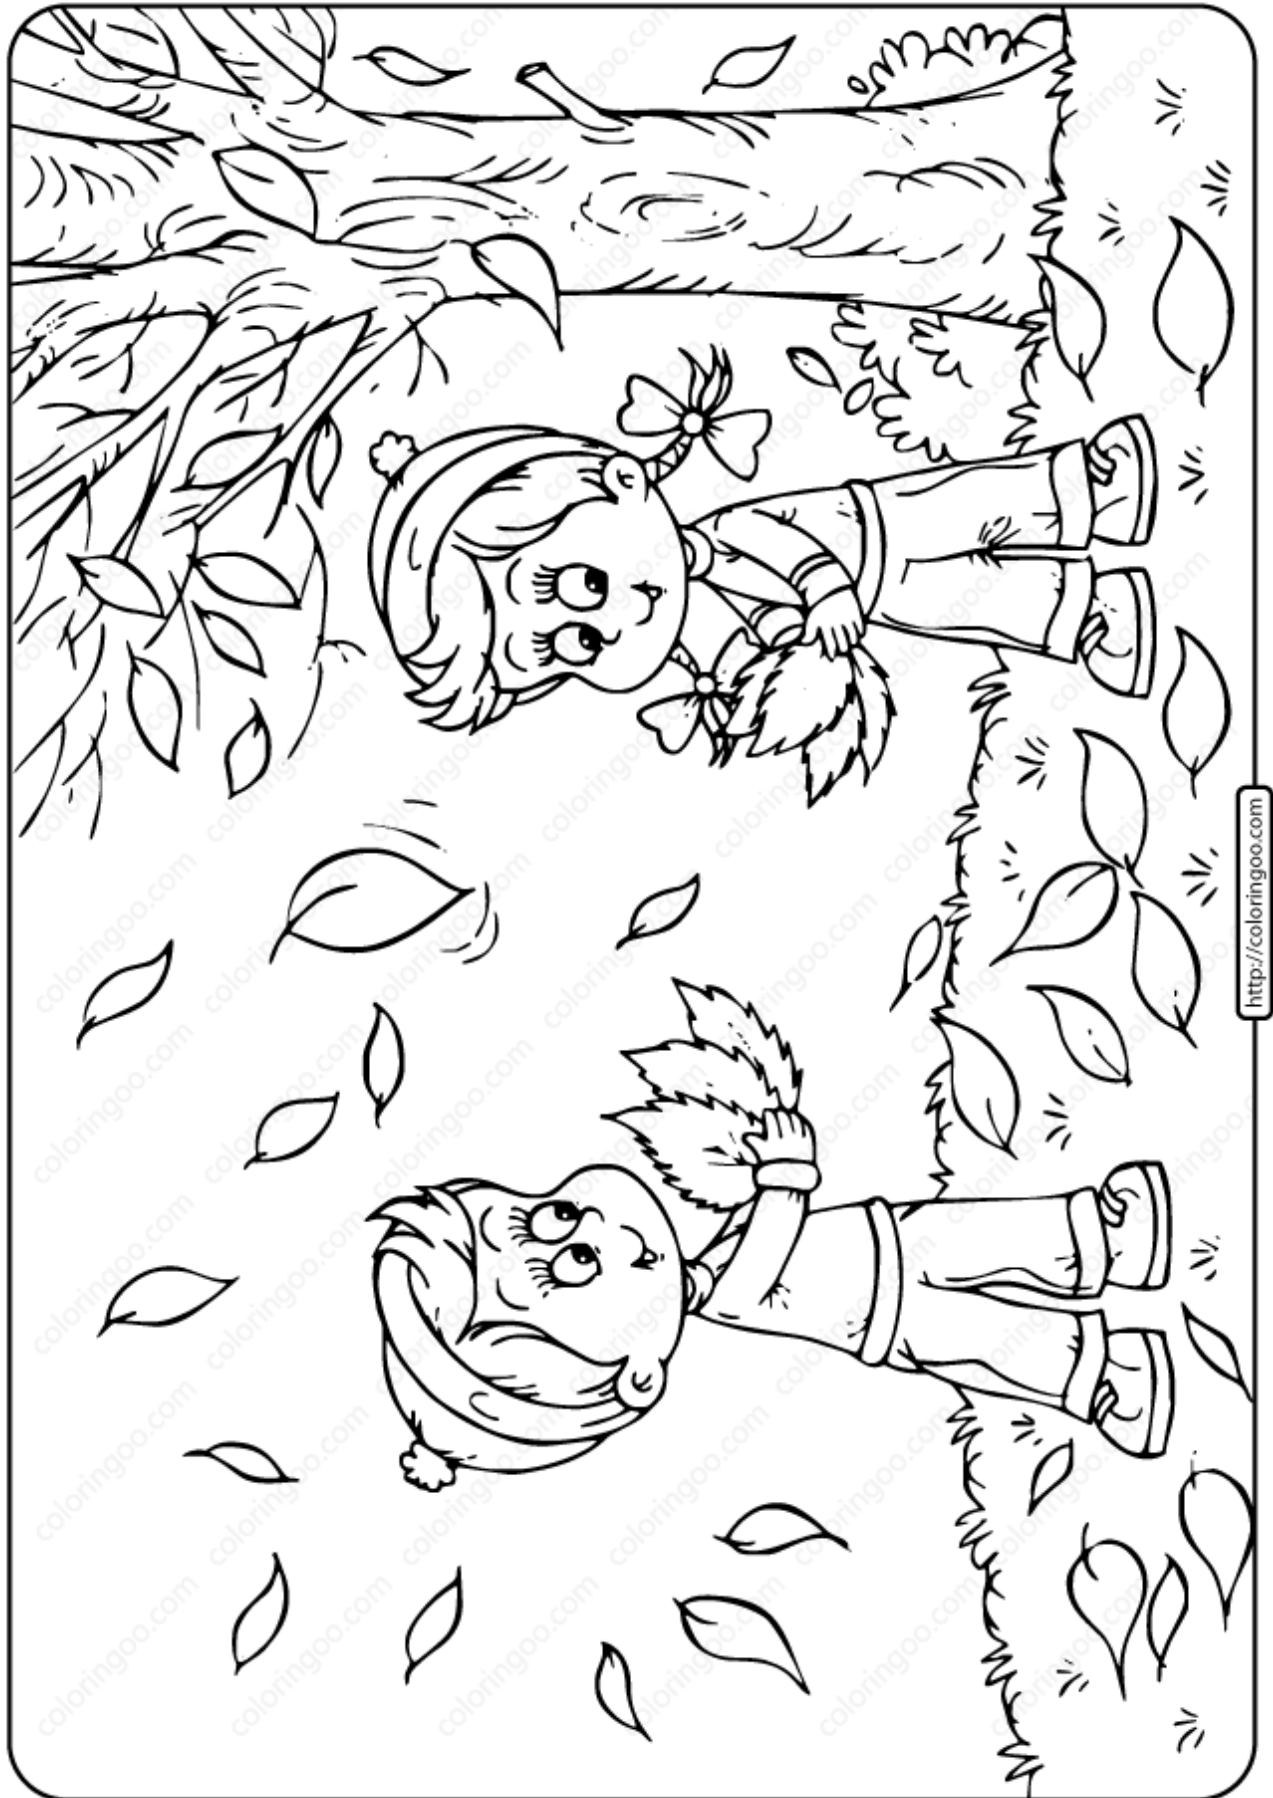

The Annual Lunch & Pie Social was a success again this year! We served over 275 people and raised around $3,000 for WELCA. Thank you to those who worked and baked pies, sharing their gifts of time and talent as well as all those who made contributions and donations to the event. We appreciate everyone who attended – thank you for supporting the social, sharing in fellowship, and continuing a wonderful Trinity tradition. We look forward to serving you again next year.

- Heather Clark & Katie Moll

Thank you Bill, Dan and Lionel for mowing this summer and keeping the church looking nice. Also Thank you to Trudie, Lonna & Didi for maintaining the beautiful flower garden.

ISAIAH 40:8

Create some invisible art and then reveal the seasonal design.

What you need:

- Leaves
- White paper
- White crayon (label removed)
- Watercolor paints
- Water
- Paintbrush

What you do:

1. Gather leaves of different shapes and sizes. On a table, arrange them flat without overlaps. Set the paper over them.
2. Hold the crayon sideways and use the long edge to color over the leaves. You'll make an invisible rubbing of them.
3. Then paint over the paper with watercolors. The areas with crayon will resist the paint and reveal the hidden leaf designs.

Answer: The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will stand forever. Isaiah 40:8, ESV
