I bet most of you have seen one or two or more of the classic "Peanuts" cartoons with Charlie Brown, Snoopy, Lucy, and Linus. What is the biggest characteristic that Linus has? He loves his blanket. Never goes anywhere without it. It is attached to him. The same thing happens in our house with our dog Baxter, but it isn't a blanket. It is a toy. A Lamb Chop toy to be exact, which we call "Lamby." He loves this toy. He carries it everywhere in his mouth. When he comes in from outside, he runs to find it. He sleeps with it. It is his favorite thing in the world. He is attached to it, always goes back to it, and just loves it with everything. He even has other Lamb Chop toys in different colors, but his original one is his favorite. It is precious to him.

You are precious to God. God thinks of you the same way Baxter thinks of his lamby. God pursues you, wants to be with you, values you and loves you. God loves you so much that God sent Jesus to be your Savior, God's only Son. God loves you so much God promises to be with you always, to be a light to you in the darkness. You are precious in God's sight. As it says in Isaiah 43:4, "Because you are precious in my sight and I love you."

As we begin a new year, I hope that you might remember that you are precious in God's sight. So often we feel like we are not loved, that we are forgotten, that we are not precious. We wish someone would love us as much as my dog loves his lamby. But the fact of the matter is you are. You are loved by God in Jesus Christ. You are precious in God's sight. God searches for you, loves you, values you, every single day. Remember this love. Remember that you matter to God. Remember that you are precious. And give thanks for it.

May you be blessed this new year and remember that you are loved!

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Brad

Quilter's Corner

We are now into November. My notes are behind because I wait till the end of every month to do my report. What is the saying, A dollar short and a day late? That would be me. I like to be sure we get the whole month in so you can see how much we do, even with the talking and eating we do accomplish lots. Our first Tuesday is potluck. Best day ever!! We are celebrating Andrea's, Marlys's and Trudie's birthdays. Hope you ladies had a wonderful birthday. Andrea's dad even popped in for a visit. That was awesome! We worked so hard the last week of October, so there are no quilts to bind. We ladies got right on top of that and just like that a quilt is ready to go. We even put together comfort quilts and have 2 down in the cupboard for the next week. Must be that potluck meal that makes us work so hard. Sandy and I each have a quilt to bind right away when we come in the next week. Usually by the time coffee hour comes around we each have a quilt completed. Not so much that day! I think we talked too much, but when PB pops in that takes some time!! He had asked us a question on something that he didn't know so we had to explain who, what and why!! Always keep PB in the loop no matter what it is. Of course, us ladies fired back a question to him, so overall we were even. He needed to explain the red piece of paper on our wall. We need to stay in the loop too. We felt it was kind of like quilting/ Bible study day!! Very interesting day!! The ladies worked hard putting quilts together and by the end of the day I only got one done and so did Sandy. I was having trouble with my sewing machine is what I said, and it was somewhat, but Sandy must have felt guilty, because she stayed after we left to do one more. I say one for the team Sandy. She did say that she got that quilt done faster when there was no one to talk to. Maybe next time we will put her out in the dining area to sew!! Ha! Ha! Our third Tuesday was busier than just quilting. Bea showed up so we let her do the binding on the quilts while the ladies put them together. Sandy, Mary and I went out into the dining area and got the tables and such decorated for Christmas. I tell you when I came in Tuesday, WOW Christmas was all around. PB worked his tail off to get all the rest of the decorations together. Great job PB!! The ladies worked very hard in the quilting room that day, but here we go again, I got no news feed from any of them, because I was not in the room. I really am considering putting in a system that will carry out in the dining area so I can stay in the loop. So now we are at the fourth Tuesday and that's the day we had snow. Most of us decided to stay home, but Sandy and Eloise went out and ventured in the snow. Found out we all stayed home, so they went back home. Those two ladies must like wild adventures in the snow. We have not sent out any quilts this month, we are putting them under the table to see where we need to send them too. Next month is December and we are going to do a cookie exchange. See how much fun we have. You need to be a part of our quilting group! By the time you all read this, we hope you had a wonderful Christmas with your family and friends! Thanks for reading and Happy New Year to all from the "QUILTING LADIES."

Thanks for reading and see you next month.

WOMEN OF TRINITY

The Women of Trinity's December gathering was held on Saturday, December 3 at 9 a.m. Twenty three were present. A delicious brunch was served by the board and was enjoyed by all. We played bingo with prizes donated by the board. The week of December 7-9 was very busy with making lefse preparing for the annual bake sale which netted $2800. Thank you to all the workers who contributed to this event. This Sunday, December 18, will be the Men's Band Concert with a meatball supper served before. Thank you ahead of time to all the workers and preparers.

Wishing everyone a very Merry Christmas & Happy New Year

Kathy Hanson, WOT President

A Note of Thanks to the Women of Trinity...

I would like to thank the hard work and efforts of fundraising this past year that the women of Trinity took part in to raise money for area non profits and ministries. Your amazing monetary gift this Christmas season will be used to provide more meat (we have had a hard time getting a variety of meats at descent prices this past year) and personal care products. In the past we were able to use your donation to stock up on diapers and wipes. We can not thank you all enough for your support and contributions.

We also would like to thank you for those that contribute to the quilts. Our new families receive a beautiful quilt at their first visit due to your generosity and hard work and they are so very appreciative of this extra gift. Thanks for all you do now during the Holidays and throughout the year. Trinity Lutheran Church is a wonderful partner to West CAP's mission of helping our local families in need!

Sincerely,

Melissa Larson

Thank You!

Mange takk! (many thanks in Norwegian) to all our lefse volunteers and supporters! We had a hard working crew of happy helpers coming and going at Trinity December 7th-9th! It is delightful to have so much support! We sold all 463 bags of lefse at the Bake Sale by 1:00 on Saturday! That's over 1,400 slices!! Well Done!

Thank you for making Lefse Days at Trinity possible!

Peggy & Deb

Thank you to Sharon Formoe for polishing the brass for our Christmas Eve Services!

Dear Trinity Congregation,

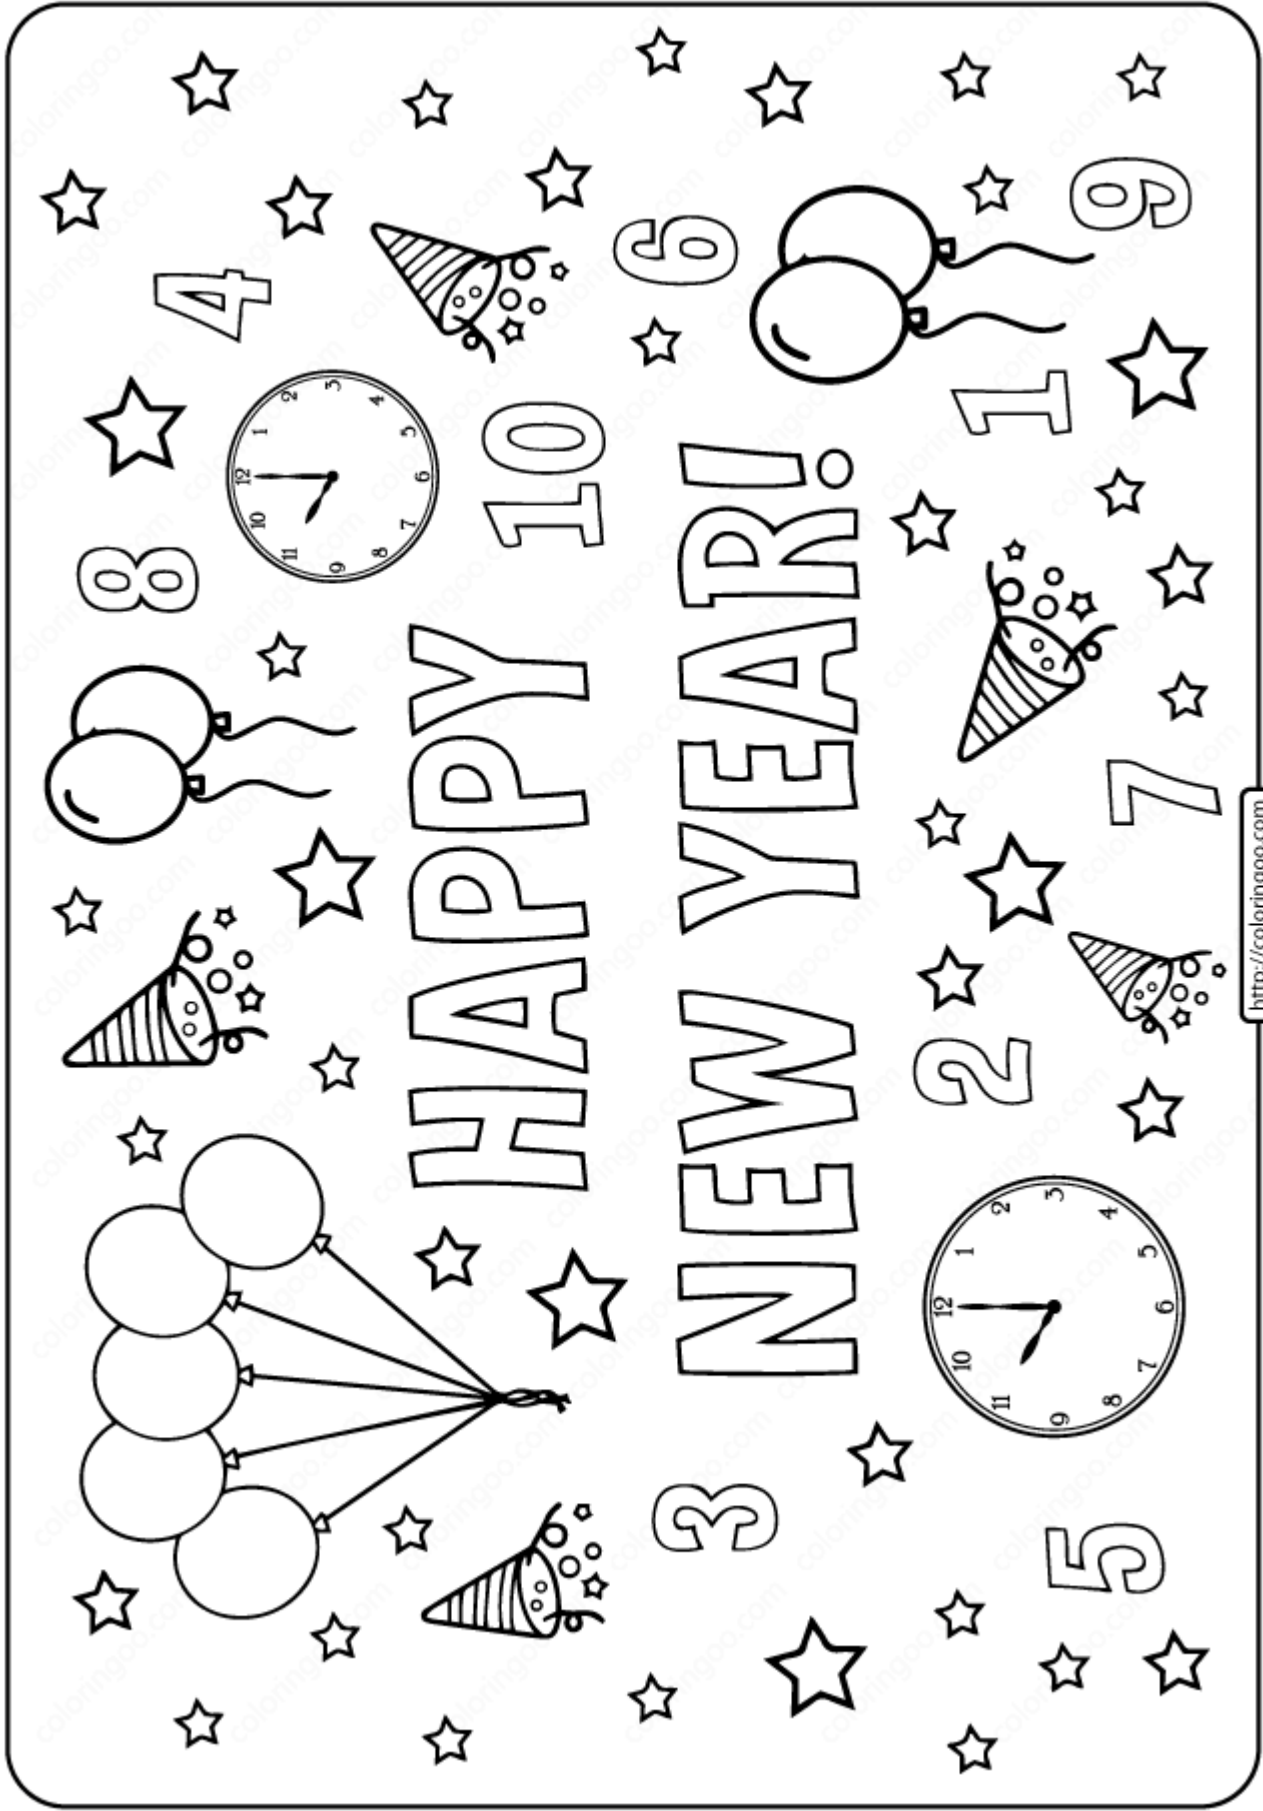

I just wanted to thank you all once again for all you do for West CAP's food pantry and Weekend Meals Program throughout this past year. Your care and concern for those in our community is very much appreciated as we all work together to make sure all needs are met.

May you all have a Merry Christmas and we again are very thankful for your kindness and giving spirits!

Warm regards,

Melissa J Larson

Thanks to everyone that brought in baked goods, gave cash donations or worked at the bake sale. We can't do this without you. A huge shout out to the congregation and the community for coming out to buy our goods in support of our ministry. Thank you all so much!
