One of the things I had to get used to when I moved to Wisconsin over 20 years ago was the Wisconsin wave. Everywhere I drove, people waved at me. Including strangers. It was very weird for me, coming from the Chicago area where you never gestured to anyone (at least, an appropriate gesture!) for fear of what they might do in return. So to come here and wave to people took a little getting used to. Now, I do it without even thinking and I appreciate the waves I get. A small act of kindness, of friendliness, can go a long way.

In thinking about this, I realized that this is one way that we proclaim the Gospel. It might seem weird that this would be so, but sometimes proclaiming the Gospel is something that happens without words. Small acts of friendliness, of kindness, of compassion, can make a huge difference. It can show someone that they are seen, that they are not alone or invisible in the world. And why would think that our God could not act through those small actions of ours? God works in, through, and amongst us and when we show people that kindness and that love, God in Jesus Christ is present and active.

Proclaiming the Gospel isn't always words. It is actions too and we are called to be the hands and feet of God in the world. We proclaim the Gospel by who we are and showing the world who we are. Showing them love. Kindness. Compassion. In ways both big and small.

So continue to wave to people in your car. Offer a smile to that person you pass in the grocery store. Do those small acts of friendliness and kindness. Wave to that person you pass on the road. You never know what God will do through that small act.

Yours in Christ,
PB

I know that authors have Writers Block when they can't think of what to write. I found myself in that same situation even though I am not an author. Why? I missed out on 2 quilting days and one day working in the dining area. Don't have the speakers set up in there yet!!! I, however, was there for potluck and that is the day you do not want to miss. Food is soooooo good!! Love having lunch with the ladies!!! One day there were so many different conversations going on at the quilt table, my ears were just burning trying to figure it all out and I got nothing. It seemed like it was all jumbled together. Think a lot of it has to do with my hearing and I can't report news until I have the facts right!! PB always stops in to say hi, but for him to become a "QUILTER" he must pick up a needle and give it a whirl. Will keep you posted the day that happens. We love having him pop in to fill us in on the latest and we try to do the same to him. So, our last Tuesday of the month it was a -27 temperature and I felt that most of the ladies would not come because of the cold and I still don't have enough to put in my article. Low and behold they flock in. I told Sandy when we sat down to sew that I was not leaving this room to go out in the dining area because I needed some juicy news. Sharon Formoe brought her own bandages because the week before she was poking herself with the pins. She must have used up all our bandages from the week before. Good thing she did because Marlys poked herself and I think Shirley Bloom did too. Dr. Sharon was there to rescue them with her bandages, so we didn't have to take them to the hospital. Now you can see how dangerous quilting can be!! We had a great fun day and there are some things that we just cannot put in the article, right ladies?? We celebrated Shirley Bloom and Carol Erickson's birthday in January. They sure look good for just turning 39!! Must get their youth from all the food we eat. I'm just saying. We really worked hard on that last Tuesday, and we were all ready to go home, so I will give you our January totals in my next month's article. Anyway, we were looking over our records of all the quilts we have donated and in the year 2021 we did a total of 90 quilts and in 2022 we did 222. This makes my heart happy to see that we are helping so many in our community and beyond. These ladies are a ray of sunshine and so happy we get to be a part of it. Thanks for reading see you next month.

WOMEN OF TRINITY

The WOT board met on Wednesday, February 1st with 3 board members present. PB also came during the meeting. We made plans to serve a Taco meal with bars/desserts on March 1st before the Lenten service. We are trying to find more women to join the board as we have several events coming up throughout the year. We are now planning the Bill Anderson funeral on February 18. We will also be serving the Lenten meal on Wednesday, March 29 with hotdishes (casseroles) and fixings. Coming during the month of April we will be collecting items such as clothing, household items, and etc. for the Savers program which will be delivered to Eau Claire during the month of May. You can start cleaning out your closets now.

SHAMROCK — St. Patrick used the shamrock to teach people about the Godhead. Holding up a shamrock, he challenged them, “Is this one leaf, or three?” Inevitably, people replied that it was both, prompting St. Patrick to draw the analogy that so, too, is God: one God in three Persons — the Holy Trinity.

Thank You!

I want to sincerely thank Thrivent and everyone from Trinity that donated to the Glenhaven Holiday Drive. I was so amazed of the generosity. We have taken down the donation boxes and if you are still interested in doing donations you can call Glenhaven Inc and talk to Mary Pyun. It is so great doing something for the elderly. Thank you so much!!!

Becky Nyhus

The January blood drive was very successful. It made over the goal and so they gave Carol, as the chairperson a $250.00 gift card for Amazon. That amazon gift card was used to stock up the kitchen supplies. Thank you to Carol and all the blood donors that made this possible.
