November 5th

I was thinking about Thanksgiving the other day, as this will be the first one in a few years that Amy and I are going to be here in Boyceville. That means I get to watch football on Thanksgiving for the first time in awhile! Of course, I look most forward to eating the incredible stuffing Amy makes and enjoying time with her and the dogs.

And like many, we will give spend sometime giving thanks to God. But I have a suspicion that we often give thanks for the things we have. We will give thanks for the awesome food on our tables, the roofs over our heads, even the football we get to watch. We will of course also give thanks for our family and our friends. But those two are “things” in some way. I want to challenge you to give thanks for something different, something I have been thinking about lately.

I want you to give thanks for the opportunity you have to serve your God and your neighbor. I thought about this when I was on the mission trip to Denver with our youth and one of the staff members gave thanks for the opportunity we had to make a difference in someone’s life. You don’t have to go on a Mission Trip to make a difference in someone’s life or to serve God. You have that opportunity right now. This very day.

You have the opportunity to show someone God’s love through your compassion, your kindness, your love. You can tell them of the hope and joy we have in Jesus Christ. You can lift up the needy, give of your material resources to support our mission partners and our own ministry. You can engage with others, welcome the stranger and visitor, pray for the hurting and grieving. This is an opportunity given to you. Give thanks for that opportunity. And then seize it. Make a difference.

We are of course thankful for all that we have, for all we have is from God and is a gift to us. But that includes the gift of the opportunity to proclaim the Gospel and serve the neighbor, to make a difference in our church, our community, and our world. May you have a happy and wonderful thanksgiving!

One last thing: this year, on Thanksgiving, it is Trinity’s Birthday! We are 117 years old! We give thanks for this ministry and all who have gone before us!

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Brad

Now that I have you all caught up with what we have been doing, it's time to get back to the history of our famous quilter ladies. This month's fun facts are about Shirley Bloom. She thought that she joined about 2010, somewhere in there and the reason that she joined was she wanted something to do and help others that didn't have a warm quilt. I asked her if she was a quilter at the time when she joined the group and she said that she helped her mother and her mother-in-law, but they didn't sew the blocks together, but they helped tie them. Mary Slind, Carol Erickson, Joanne Larson, Phyllis Lundeen, Delores Brezina, Kathy Hanson, and Arlene Clack were in the quilters group when she started. Shirley stays busy in the quilt room and at home. She sews and cuts blocks for quilt tops at home and on our Tuesday, she sews in the yarn and ties the blocks. She also makes baby quilts at home. It is always nice to hear what changes have taken place since she joined the group and she says it's wonderful to have a serger to finish off diapers and blankets, because they would have to hem them. Whoever invented the serger, best thing ever for our group. She likes spending time with the group talking and laughing. Again, it all needs to stay in the quilting room!! From when she joined until now, she says we have new members joining and we are now making comfort quilts and the sergers to make it lots easier. Shirley's favorite memories are getting to know the families. I must agree with Shirley, because I think we all feel as a group that we are in a sense family. Maybe because of all the stories we tell! I hope you were able to get a glimpse of the church adorned with our quilts that we will be sending out for missions. The service was all around the quilts. PB did a wonderful job!! Thanks for reading and God Bless!

THANKSGIVING HUMOR

Need to lighten the mood at your holiday dinner table? Share some laughter with these Thanksgiving-themed jokes.

Why did the turkey decline dessert?
Because it was stuffed.

Why did the turkey cross the road twice?
To prove he wasn't a chicken.

What smells the best at Thanksgiving dinner?
Your nose.

Why didn't the chef season the turkey?
There wasn't enough thyme.

Why did the turkey leave the band?
People were fighting over the drumsticks.

PUZZLE

THANKS-FILLED GIVING

The virtues of gratefulness and generosity are connected. When we're truly thankful for all God provides, we want to sow generous seeds in other people's lives. What will be the harvest?

Directions: Solve the clues associated with each picture. Then write the words in the correct spaces to complete 2 Corinthians 9:10-11, NIV.

This becomes a plant _____

 Willing to give _____

The result of planting seeds _____

 The act of gratitude _____

Food made from wheat _____

Now he who supplies _____ to the sower and _____ for food will also supply and increase your store of _____ and will enlarge the _____ of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way so that you can be _____ on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in _____ to God. 2 Corinthians 9:10-11, NIV

Woven WITH Gratitude

Handicrafts can spark appreciation for simple items. Weave this basket as a gift.

What you need:

- Paper plate
- Pencil
- Scissors
- Yarn (different colors)

What you do:

1. In the center of the plate, trace something round. Draw 9 lines (evenly spaced) from the circle to the plate's edge.
2. Cut along each line, stopping at the center circle. Trim more of the plate off so the cuts make a gradual V shape.
3. Fold the plate's sides upward to form basket sides. Keep these upright as you weave a bowl-shaped basket.
4. Begin weaving a length of yarn at the circle's base. Hold the end of the yarn in place as you spread the length over and under each side of the plate.
5. Switch colors to make a pattern. Keep the yarn tight as you weave up the sides.
6. To finish, bend down any remaining paper. Leave a tail of yarn and tuck it under a woven portion. Share your craft with a friend!

THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!

What a wonderful day we had on Saturday for the Oktoberfest "Sip & Shop" Craft/Vendor Event.

The WELCA would sincerely like to thank you for donating food, volunteering to work, buying raffle tickets and/or shopping locally!!!! Without your help this event would not be possible, so thank you!!!

We want to thank the Boyceville School District for allowing us to move our event to the high school this year. It gave us more room for our crafters & vendors and more spacious room in the dining area. What a great janitorial staff! Thank you to Dale, Dennis and Pat!! We appreciate you and all you did for us!!

I want to send out very special thank you to our wonderful group that worked so hard to help put this event together. Sandy Wheeler & Kris Carlsrud took care of the food and kitchen duties, Brenda Schlough handled communication with the off-site vendors, Diane Oakland & Heidi Kothrade were responsible for setting up the raffle tables and the quilt raffle and Kathy Hanson collected the registrations and sent back confirmation letters, which means that I just had to work on the advertising, taping down the gym floor and checking everyone in. You ladies just ROCK!!!! I can't say enough about this team. They are great and I, along with Kathy Hanson, appreciate them and are so glad that they are part of this great event!! It was fun working with all of them and watching all the great ideas they came up with for setting up and working with our newfound space!! I look forward to seeing what next year will bring. A special thanks also for Loren Kothrade, Steve Stark and Randy Schutz for your help!! We appreciate you men taking the time to help out!!

One more special thank you to all our off-site vendors!!!! You helped make this day special not just for us and our event but for everyone that came to our little town to shop! Hopefully they left with lots of merchandise but also with memories of a fun day with their family or friends.

Thank you again!!!
