2 Samuel 8:1-8

One of the jokes that we have in the Men's Band is that we even though we have played some of our songs probably at least a thousand times, we still forget how to start them. We might even forget how they might go. Why? Well, when you don't practice them, you forget them. I'm sure you have heard the phrase "practice makes perfect." You have to practice something to get to get it right, to remember it. I thought of that phrase as school gets back in session. Our kids have to remember how to use their brains again after a summer of being out of school and out of routine. Families have to get back into the groove of a school schedule. Even us, as a church, have to get back into the routine after our summer. I even had to do some remembering when I came back from sabbatical and being gone for a lot of the summer.

The same is true for our faith life. When we don't practice our faith, we forget it. We forget about the love of God for us in Jesus Christ. We forget about the hope and forgiveness we have received in Jesus. We forget that we are children of God and that through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ we have the promise of eternal life. We forget that we have a calling to serve our neighbors and care for the poor and needy. We forget that we a part of this thing we call the church, the family of God, and that each of us has gifts that we can use to strengthen and lift up this body of Christ, each one of being an important part of this family.

It is why daily prayer is so important. It is why I do post those daily devotions on Facebook. It is why we offer worship online. It is why we encourage you to use your gifts out in the world. So that we would not forget. So that our faith would not get out of shape. So that we might remember the song of our salvation, a song of forgiveness and hope and grace and new life. I like to think of worship and prayer and daily devotion as those ways in which we recharge our faith so that we can live it out. Coming to the church to worship and to serve is the place where we remember who we are and what Christ has done for us so that we can go out and live out our faith every day and that our faith would remain strong as we go out into our everyday lives.

Just as we are getting back into the routines now that summer is over, maybe today is the day to get back into a routine of exercising your faith. Of remembering what Jesus Christ has done for you and the salvation you have received from him. Today is the day to start to pray again or read scripture again or maybe check out a worship service again if you have been away, whether it be in person or online. Maybe today is the day you decide to use your gifts in a new way or answer the call to serve your neighbor. Exercise your faith and remember the promises for you in Jesus Christ. It is never too late for your Savior is always waiting for you, for you are loved.

May God bless you today and always!

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Brad

We became "FAMOUS". Missy Klatt came and took photos of our quilting group for the Glenwood City Tribune, and asked questions. You could see the gleam in their eyes as they answered questions and got to talk about our group. Not sure when this will be published but keep your eye out for it. We may have to set a date if anyone needs autographs, or your photo taken with the ladies! lol As I always say, we are on the map. It makes you sit back and think how far back these ladies started and how they drive to keep going. They are an inspiration to all of us. We love their stories and spending time with them. We have been very busy cutting fabric for the last month and have plenty of blocks for anyone to stop in and put together at home. We appreciate any help we can get right now. The last part of the month was crazy and when I think of it, when is it not. VBS was going on that week and Mary Hetzel and Shirl Hetzel were in the kitchen serving snacks to the kids. Shirl has done this for over 20 years. One amazing lady that's for sure. Char and Barb are our newest members of the group and let me tell you they sure have been a blessing in our group. Sometimes they have a conversation with jack the ripper, that is a seam ripper for those that do not know. George is our name for our batting! Ha ha. They are going out of their comfort zone to learn more. Sharon of course is always taking care of our special quilts for raffles and such. Our group of ladies help in so many ways. We have been using the dining area every Tuesday just to be sure we are making use of all our donated sewing machines. We have a long way to go on our quilts, so everyone stays pretty busy. We have even been asked for more quilt donations to other organizations, but at this time we had to say no. Any donations or Thrivent cards* are welcome. Thanks for reading and God Bless!

Thrivent Members

I would like to touch base a bit with those of you that have Thrivent Financial. I am finding that more and more people that I talk to have no idea they can get a Thrivent card. What is Thrivent card? It is a card that you can apply for through your Thrivent agent or online to help others in so many ways whether helping families in need, helping your church, your community and so much more! Some examples just our church uses them for, helping the cost of Pie Social, Fall Festival, lefsa making supplies and youth organizations, quilter supplies, Spirit of Christmas, community garden, potato pancake meal, the list goes on and on. You can ask whoever is doing a project if this is something they can use or talk to PB, Ladies Trinity Group the quilters and so on. The Thrivent card is various set amounts all the way to $250.00 max. for you to apply for and donate to these various organizations whatever your choice maybe. So, if you look at all the ways we use them, just think about the benefits our church and community receive every year. To find out more about these contact your financial advisor to find out if you qualify for one. Your Thrivent agent can help you out with it or just ask me and I can walk you through how to apply online. I will have a form to help walk you through applying online in the office if you want to check that out. Just ask Andrea for them. Thank you!
