PASTOR'S PAGE

For many of you, including me, I know that not only do you look forward to your Thanksgiving meal, but you look forward to all you can make with the leftovers after the meal. Whether it be turkey sandwiches or in my house Amy often makes really delicious turkey enchiladas, leftovers can be good post meal. Yet, they are still the leftovers. Good, but not quite as good as the original meal. My stuffing is never quite as good, the turkey not as juicy, the green bean casserole not as creamy. But that is the nature of leftovers.

As we sit at the banquet table of blessings that the Lord gives us in life, the table filled with our financial blessings, our time, and the myriad of gifts and talents that we are given, we sometimes treat what we give of those things to God as the leftovers. We give to God from that table what we have left after we have used them for the other things in life, not giving them as first fruits but last fruits. We forget that the table was set by God, all the food was cooked by God, provided by God, and that even life itself is a gift from God. Even more so, the forgiveness, grace, and hope we have in Jesus Christ is a gift from God, not earned by us but given by our loving Creator. But so often we wait to give back to God only our leftovers, if we even have any.

Our mindset needs to change. This God that provides everything for us calls us to give our first fruits, trusting in the one who already provides for us. We give out of faith and gratitude for what the Lord has done for us but also out of recognition that it has never been ours to begin with. And as we come to the end of the year, we need the first fruits of your generous spirit, which you have already shown in your support of the parsonage project but has come at the expense of our Mission Plan. We need your time and talents as we look to staff events and Sunday School and other critical and important functions at the church. We need you to look at the banquet table in front of you and to prayerfully consider what you can give to the Lord first and not wait for what is left. For the Lord who saves and redeems us and bears our burdens and gives us hope does not deserve our leftovers.

May the Spirit be with you as you discern how best to support God's mission and ministry here at Trinity. And may you see the banquet of blessings before you and every day know that you are loved in the name of Jesus Christ and feast on God's grace and mercy.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Brad

Quilter's Corner

Well, I see that at the end of last month's notes I said, "Enjoy the photos." One tiny problem: where the heck were the photos?? Apparently, I forgot the minor detail of actually including them. So, here they are at last—photos from the parade and, most importantly, our PICKLE MASCOT!!! I'm not saying it's OLD AGE. I'm saying my brain has too many tabs open, and one of them is playing music but I can't figure out which one. OK, parade officially wrapped up—photos and all. Next, we quilters want to say a big THANK YOU to PB for the beautiful words in his musings in the Trinity Tidings. He really does love us!!!! Some days, after witnessing our shenanigans, we're just not entirely sure. I made a copy, so we now have documented proof if needed. We may frame it and hang it in his office as a reminder that, yes, someday his office will be ours. The church looked so beautiful with the quilts laid across the backs of the pews. We wish it could look that way all year long. Char and Barb do a wonderful job keeping everything organized. We packed the quilts, and they are ready to be loaded up and shipped out. We also donated quilts to Oktoberfest and the Fire Department ATV run. Our group keeps growing, which means we're getting a lot more done—or at least making our shenanigans look highly productive. We currently have a couple of Thrivent cards floating around the group to help us buy more fabric and wide backing. With all the quilts we make, we go through a ton of it. I had the ladies over to my house for soup, sandwiches, and desserts. It was a beautiful day outside, and just as lovely inside. Thank you, ladies, for coming—and for helping make sure I wasn't stuck eating all the desserts myself! Sharon is going to hold a class for our quilter ladies who want to learn more about sewing, and we are so excited. Sharon has sewn for more than 30 years, so there will be lots to learn. Thank you, Sharon, for doing this! We promise to listen carefully, ask good questions, and only blame the sewing machine when absolutely necessary. We celebrated Eloise Knutson's and Shirl Hetzel's 94th birthdays. A group of us quilters went to visit Eloise, and she was so excited to see us. We gave her a photo to put in her room. Shirl enjoyed her Green Bay Packers cupcakes. Happiest wishes to them both, with many more happy birthdays to come! Confirmation will be here soon, and we can't wait to see all the kids wrapped in our beautiful quilts. Thank you for reading! ~ Becky Nyhus

NOVEMBER 2026

In the Know:	Inside WOT This Month:
Month of November, in the ELCA, has several major observances with a primary one being the festival celebrating the resurrection of Christ, the communion of saints, and life everlasting. The Lutheran calendar moves from the end of the old church year to the beginning of the new one during the month of November, holding deep theological significance in ongoing spiritual growth, life and mission work. As the church year draws near to transitioning to the 'Time After Pentecost' thru November 25th, and with Advent beginning November 29th, 2026, the November Liturgical colors move through: GREEN/WHITE/GOLD symbolizing growth, purity, joy, victory and light. In ELCA WOT, we continue to share our bounties with others, may it be Time, Talents or Resources, no matter the quantity, as we are Living out one's Faith through care in being a good neighbor & in 'seeing' the joys in our everyday life. 	* Sunday November 1st, 2026 ●  ● ALL SAINTS DAY ● Potato Pancake Meal * WOT Board Mtg: Sunday Nov 8th * Sunday Nov 15th Parable focusing on: ● stewardship ● vigilance ● use of God given Talents * Thursday Nov 26th ● Thanksgiving Day of gratitude  * Sunday November 29th, 2026 Beginning of Advent * Sunday Nov 29th ● Reformation Day ● Decorate the Church after service * Peek Ahead to Save the Dates: ● Dec 9th & 10th Lefse Making Day ● Dec 12th Spirit of Christmas ● Dec 24th & Dec 25th Christmas

LWR THANK YOU! By Char Larson

A big "Thank You" to all my wonderful "Quilting Sisters" for all your hard work this year to make World Relief a success. Quilts, Personal care kits, baby care kits, school kits. There is a lot of work going into it all. You would never know if you haven't helped. We have room for more helpers. Thanks to everyone that went to garage sales and purchased baby items. Thanks Darla for all the World Relief quilts you make for us. We appreciate it. Thanks to you Trudie behind the scenes. So glad you are watching out for us and saving all the boxes for LWR items. Never forgotten. Our "Sissy, Andrea" always taking care of us. Thanks for all your help and being there for the seniors when they need it. Putting up with a bunch of foolish old gals nothing you can do but sit and listen. Love ya! We love our "Senior Sisters"- Shirley H, Shirley B, Marlys, and Darlene. We are always willing to take a lesson from someone who knows something...if you can get us to listen and learn. You all have a special place in our hearts. Shirley H and Marlys, we appreciate you getting lunch ready for us ever week. Great job! "Quilting sisters forever"- Sandy, Becky, Barb, Sharon, Cheryl, Mary, Donna, Diane. I couldn't ask for more special friends. We have a lot of fun together and hope it keeps going for many years.

Sandy for all your young life stories, you wild one! Becky, for your sense of humor, fattening us up with your desserts, doing pictures and writing about us in the monthly newsletter. You rock. Barb for all your help making diapers, blankets organizing and counting items. Oh and just putting up a friend like me (Char). Cheryl for all the bindings you sew on the quilts. Sharon for all the beautiful quilts you donate. The lessons you teach us, the pictures you take and watching out for your mom. Mary, for all the quilts you tie and watching out for Angel Shirley. Big job! Donna for helping tie quilts. Diane, our new member, "Welcome aboard" thanks for helping with quilts. We look forward to seeing your first one!

There are not enough words to how I feel about everyone of you. Love you to the moon and back. Last but not least, "the man behind the sister quilters". Thanks for all your advice and a tie here and there PB we always enjoy your company. You are always welcome.

THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS

Counting Our Blessings

Thanksgiving is a great opportunity to “count our blessings.” God blesses each of us daily in so many ways. Solve the following math problems. Then write the words on the numbered lines below to complete Ephesians 1:3, NIV.

- | | |

Bread Painting

When you eat this fun snack, be thankful for Jesus, who is our Bread of Life.

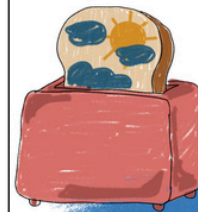

What you need:

- Small cups
- Milk
- Food coloring
- Clean, food-safe brush
- Slice of bread
- Toaster or toaster oven
- Butter, optional

What you do:

1. Set out one small cup for each color you want to use.
2. Pour 1 to 2 tablespoons of milk into each cup.
3. Add a few drops of food coloring to each cup and stir until the color is bright.
4. Using a clean, food-safe brush, gently paint a picture or design on the bread. Be careful not to soak the bread.
5. When you're finished painting, toast the bread. Add a little butter, if desired, and enjoy!

Reminder:

Ask an adult for help when using a toaster or toaster oven.

“I am the bread of life.”
 John 6:35, NIV

Answer: “Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us in the heavenly realms with every spiritual blessing in Christ.”
