PASTOR'S PAGE

Why did the wisemen come to see the baby Jesus? Let's forget for a second that there probably weren't three (could have been three, ten, 300. We don't really know). And let's forget for a second that most likely they weren't there right away after Jesus was born, as that doesn't really matter. But they traveled from afar to visit Jesus for a purpose. They came to worship this newborn king and to give him gifts. Worship and giving.

When we think of Christmas, we often think of gifts. We make our lists for family and friends, and we sing songs of Santa checking the list, twice in fact. We scour the deals in the stores for the best gifts for family and friends and even gifts for ourselves. We even think about funny gifts for white elephant gift exchanges at work or amongst friends at parties. Gifts are everywhere.

However, the most important gift is the reason for the season (yep, I said that cliché. I couldn't resist): Jesus Christ, the babe born in the Bethlehem. This gift, the Son of God, is given to save us from our sins and bring us to eternal life. He is the ultimate gift and the focus of everything about this time of year. And due to this gift, we in turn should act like those wisemen that travelled from afar. We come to worship and give gifts.

We worship and pay homage to the Son of God whose grace saves us. And we give gifts, gifts of our financial resources, gifts of our time, gifts of our talents through service to this newborn king. What gifts will you bring this newborn king? How you will you pay him homage? Will you not only worship him on Christmas Eve but throughout the month? Will you worship him prayer and devotion through Advent wreaths and calendars? Will you commit to helping others by supporting our Mission Partners or volunteering for a Trinity ministry or helping to make lefse? Will you open up your treasure chest for or an extra monetary gift to Mission Madness or the Parsonage Fund or donating items for the Silent Auction?

The Wise Men came to worship and give out of faith to the Messiah born in Bethlehem. This Christmas, come and do the same. Come worship this gift that has been given to you for your salvation. Come give of what you have been blessed with in gratitude for that salvation and in thanksgiving for the grace and mercy we receive by the birth of Jesus Christ our Lord. Have a Merry Christmas and remember that you are loved this Christmas and always!

Yours in Christ, Pastor Brad

Quilter's Corner

Well, let's talk about our quilt class and our teacher, Sharon. Nine of us packed up our fabric, quilting tools, and sewing machines and headed to church. Sharon gave us several patterns to choose from, which was our first challenge: quilters can make a thousand tiny stitches but ask us to pick ONE pattern and suddenly we need a committee. We brown-bagged our lunches because who has time to eat when there's fabric to sew? We were like kids going to school. We picked our tables, set up, and were ready to learn. Within 15 minutes, we were saying "WOW!" and asking questions. New knowledge was actually getting into our brains! At our age, we sometimes wonder whether the memory department is full, but apparently, we can still squeeze in a quilting trick between the grandchildren's birthdays and where we left our glasses. Soon, questions were flying from every table. Sharon needed a clone—or at least roller skates. Then something truly remarkable happened: the quilters got quiet. You could have heard a pin drop. Never have I ever witnessed something like this. We were concentrating so hard that even the gossip had to wait. Sharon gave each of us a notebook and pencil, too. A wise move Sharon. She knew us well. The day flew by, and although our projects weren't finished, we had some beautiful quilts taking shape. We took them home to finish, along with an extra pattern and project from Sharon. Homework that involves fabric? Finally, a school subject we can support! Hopefully, you'll see our quilts around the church, welcoming a baby, celebrating a confirmation, or bringing someone comfort. If the other ladies were anything like me, they went straight home and ordered everything Sharon had used. Hopefully, the internet survived nine quilters deciding they "just needed a few things." All joking aside, THANK YOU, SHARON, for sharing your time, patience, and talent with us. We learned so much, had a wonderful day, and hope to do it again. I'm out of room—not fabric, just room in this column—so thanks for reading and have a blessed Thanksgiving from the quilters! May your seams be straight and your turkey be the only thing getting stuffed.

Thank You...

Thank you to Brenda Schlough and Darlene Lee for the Christmas porch pots by the entrance of the church

Thank you to Ted Litzkow for the handmade bird feeder for the new parsonage!

I would like to give a big shout out to the Trinity Lutheran church members for your wonderful monthly support of the West CAP food Pantry and Weekend Meals Program! Your nearly weekly food donations, monetary donations and newly sewn quilts from the quilters; have brightened up the lives of many here that we serve. Your kindness if very much appreciated and we are thankful for your unending support!

Recently we have had several customers come to us who have been homeless, so the quilts have come in handy for our first time shoppers and those that need a little extra warmth! Thanks again for all you do!

Warm regards,
Melissa J McCarthy
